

SHAPE THE FUTURE OF YOUR PROJECTS

SKILLS BOOTCAMP IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Including Association for Project Management (APM)
Project Fundamentals Qualification (PFQ)

The University of Cumbria is one of the UK's leading providers of project management training and education. This Skills Bootcamp will equip learners with a detailed knowledge of the project life cycle, as well as key aspects of project management.

The programme also includes, at no additional cost, the Association for Project Management (APM) Project Fundamentals Qualifications (PFQ).

The programme

- Project lifecycle approaches, operating structures
- Project governance and the project context
- Starting a project
- Requirements and scope development
- Stakeholder engagement and management
- Communication, negotiation and conflict
- Working, leading and delivering through teams
- Planning project delivery: creating schedules, estimates and budgets
- Closing a project

What you will learn

- Project management processes, tools and techniques
- Understand how to conceive, plan and implement a project
- Apply leadership and teamwork techniques to foster success

Skills Bootcamps are part of The Government's Lifetime Skills Guarantee helping everyone gain skills for life. They are subsidised by the Department for Education and are available to employed or self-employed people living or working in Cumbria. Additional eligibility criteria apply - email for more information.

Funded by
UK Government

For more information

uocskillsbootcamps@cumbria.ac.uk

